

Aidvantage (the federal loan servicing unit of Maximus Education, LLC) has one mission – to help you manage the repayment of your federal student loan and support your financial success. Aidvantage is servicing loans for the Department of Education.

Aidvantage is only providing support service for Department of Education owned Direct and/or FFELP loans. Aidvantage is not a student loan lender. All loans in the portfolio are held by the Department of Education.

If you have other loans (FFELP and/or private) please contact your loan holder for assistance.

Please log in to obtain any specific information about your loan owned by the Department of Education and serviced by Aidvantage.
